Nice slides Chris.

I've attached my draft which I fear is perhaps too technical and too long for this audience. I welcome both your input on what to cut out. I tried to emphasize the risk based approach and provide an understanding of how we look at the chemicals lifecycle- including consumer uses, for both new and existing.

I think at a minimum I can delete the slide on PBTs but surely need to find a few other cuts to keep this below 15 minutes.

Thanks,
Nancy
